"No one can be trusted"

"It's not in your past. We're in our present." The whistle now rang. The ship seemed to arrive at the harbor.

Beastman workers have a chance to escape, a lid and a landing place
Go out to. Fabio and others look back on Vincent many times.

I ran away.

"We were stray from the beginning. Now we are in the world of beastmen.

Hey you. I'll show you up in the city of humans. "

At the end of that word, Vincent returns to human form and is in front of Shiro?

Leaved away.

"Kwa ..."

Kuro screamed as if he was at a loss, but Shiro turned his back.

As it was, he didn't tell Natalia anything.

Even from Natalia's point of view, the unity between Vincent and Jackson is shaking.
It seemed like nothing.

It seemed like it could be a model for me.

The story was completely deadlocked. As Jackson said, the only way

The reply to Jeff was the muzzle of the submachine gun pointed at.

Shiro deliberately collapses behind while being swept backwards, and his arm is pushed.

However.

"What !?"

Behind the dust that was blown up by the impact of a kick, there is a small igniting twin.

It was.

Shiro's legs were caught by a hippo beastman with his arms crossed.

Unlock the cross guard, grab Shiro's leg with one hand, and clench his fist with the other. The compressed air in my fingers squeaked and squeaked .

The biggest counterattack is coming. Shiro's back is burnt It was dry and had a fever at once moment--.

The hippo beastman smiled tired and said, "It's like a legendary silver wolf.

When I thought that the starry sky rang, a crow came down and stopped on Shiro's shoulder.

When Shiro smiled, Natalia also laughed.

"Would you like to go

Wakan Talka, who successfully regained his companion, was delighted.

Weapons of human beings are destroyed, and a large car is left behind.
It has been disabled. Perhaps almost everyone came back to life, but

That's why Pow Wow, which was originally planned to be done, is the feast of victory as it is
It was.

Humans and beasts will perform the original tribal dance together .

The festival bounced Natalia's heart for the first time like never before. Humans and beasts are indistinguishable , partly because of the Niyor costumes that imitate animals . Everyone was the same.

Sitting side by side with Shiro on a stone bench and watching the situation, next to me
Gregono and Will are here.

"Ogami, Natalia, I have something to ask."

Gregono said. I'm worried that Will is closer to him than usual

It was Will who opened his mouth in place of the drowning Gregono.

Shiro clenched his teeth and glared at her, but "Will is not wrong. She is different from us.

I'm sad about that. I can't help it. What should I do ... "

Let's do it

Gregono is angry Shiro turned down when he heard him say with a clear face. Angry

I sighed like a big sigh and said "OK ..."

I heard him say in a small voice.

"I can't do this pow wow for a while."

"Be sure to do it again"

"Can beasts and humans coexist?"

The answer came back immediately to the soliloquy .

"You can. In fact, we have done that."

It was Will. Natalia says further.

"I have seen beastmen and humans here and there. Humans are certainly beasts.

Not all possibilities have been lost. Therianthropes are still themselves

His gaze turned to Will and made her smile. My shoulder moved a little
Is it because I re-held my hand?

"Human can change"

Will said kindly.

"Human beings are very weak when they are young, and there are large individual differences
even when they grow up. If they don't train, they remain weak, and if they don't learn, they remain ignorant. Why?
It would be easier if I had everything from the beginning. "

I have a fever in my voice.
